

On January 15 people imprisoned across Florida will cripple the state's system of prison slave labor and challenge the brutal conditions they live under every day.

Incarcerated workers won't go to work or chow, make commissary purchases, go to visits, use the phone system, or participate in any activity that feeds or is fed by unpaid labor and the prison services extortion racket.

What you can do from Asheville:

- 1) Spread the word! Getting the word out is CRUCIAL. Share on FB, Twitter, Instagram (#OperationPush #EndPrisonSlavery)
- 2) Letter-writing on Sunday 1/21 (4-6pm @ Firestorm)
We'll send messages of solidarity to folks who are striking!
- 3) Keep an eye out for calls to action. Repression against prison rebels is guaranteed; stay tuned for updates and calls to action from Blue Ridge ABC (<http://brabc.blackblogs.org>)
